"I joined the RAF because I wanted to do something worthwhile, I wanted a career that I would enjoy and one that I could do things I would never of dreamed of, such as travelling around the world and getting paid for doing so.

When looking at joining the military, I considered all three services and the RAF stood out to me the most." - Cameron Harper, Networks Technician

Who are the RAF?

The Royal Air Force (RAF) is the United Kingdom's air and space force. Whether in the skies above the United Kingdom, or around the world, the RAF protect the UK's interests at home and abroad. They also act as a force for good by working to strengthen international peace and security.

So, why should you start your career with the RAF?

No ordinary employer

A career in the RAF is about discovering your natural talent and working together to find out what makes you happy, productive and brings you the most value in your life.

Further faster

Your success is vital to the RAF. With a commitment to your future, you'll undergo basic and specialist training in your chosen field, with ongoing support tailored to your career journey. Their structure means you'll be given responsibility from the get-go.

A modern force

The RAF believe the talents and skills of individuals from different groups makes for a more efficient RAF. They are committed to promoting and developing equality, diversity and inclusion within the Service and they look to recruit those who believe this too.

Find your force with the RAF.

£25,200 p/a Nationwide Level 2 - 3

By joining the Royal Air Force, you will get much more than just a job - you'll have opportunities that no other employer can hope to match. Life in the RAF is a unique experience, from worldwide travels to lifelong friendships.
